"Three Wide at Scout, Live at The Statler" Launches September 15 in Downtown Dallas

Season-long live podcast featuring Mike Rhyner, Norm Hitzges and a rotating lineup of hosts delivers college football and NFL talk every Tuesday at Scout

DALLAS - September 8, 2026 - Stolen Water Media, LLC announces the launch of "Three Wide at Scout, Live at The Statler," a new live podcast dedicated to college football and NFL talk. The show will take place every Tuesday at 5:30 p.m., beginning September 15, 2026, at Scout, the sports bar inside The Statler Hotel in downtown Dallas.

"Three Wide at Scout" will run throughout the NFL season, concluding February 16, 2027.

The weekly podcast will feature Mike Rhyner and hosts from Sunset Lounge Network and Your Dark Companion, including Norm Hitzges, Victor Villalba, Michael "Grubes" Gruber, Greg Williams, Ziggy, Rob Ervin and Mac Engel. Together, they will bring their distinctive personalities, perspectives and football knowledge to lively, unscripted conversations before a live audience.

From the weekend's results and breaking storylines to upcoming matchups, teams and players to watch, "Three Wide at Scout" will give college football and NFL fans an entertaining destination for informed opinions, spirited debate and fresh takes.

Produced by Stolen Water Media, LLC, the media company co-owned by Rhyner, "Three Wide at Scout" combines the energy of a live show with the spontaneous, conversational appeal of podcasting.

Guests can experience the podcast in person while enjoying Scout's food, drinks, games and sports-bar atmosphere inside one of downtown Dallas' most recognizable hotels.
